Hill Country Hopper

In the 1960s and 1970s the Chicago & North Western operated a web of branches and secondary lines through the hill country and northern Iowa and southern Minnesota. Fertile fields lined the tracks that ran to places like Sioux City and Mankato. Lakes and meandering rivers gave the land texture and grain elevators, feed mills and other agribusinesses dominated town skylines.

Train operations were leisurely along the lines. Single locomotives such as this SD7 or various small EMD "Geeps" handled locals that "hopped" between sidings, while more powerful GPs and SDs headed up through trains. The relaxed pace of hill country life is best illustrated by these folks fishing along the tracks somewhere southwest of Worthington. Behind them a local waits in the siding as a through train heads east. Talk to railroaders in these parts and you might just hear stories about crews who took their fishing poles along in case they got stuck in a siding to meet a train that was almost an hour away!

A Note on Availability

At Walthers, we strive to provide you with the widest variety of product possible. In order to achieve this goal, we maintain significant inventory on site. Despite our best efforts to have every item you could possibly need in house at all times, it is not realistically possible to do so. For your convenience, we do our best to promote items that are in stock and to clearly label other items—those that are new and available for Advance Reservations or items that are low in stock and have Limited Quantities Available when the Flyer goes to press. At times, we experience a quick sell out on a particular item or unexpected demand for an item that we believed to have sufficient stock in house. In many cases, items can be back ordered for future delivery. In other cases, we are unable to secure more of a particular item. For the most up to date availability information, we encourage you to check walthers.com, email us at custserv@walthers.com or call our Customer Service Team at 1-800-4-TRAINS. The 'Find It' feature on our website will help you find a Dealer in your area that may still have stock available for the item you desire.

Please know that we appreciate your support of both Walthers and your Local Hobby Shop. We are committed to making this Flyer a valuable part of your model railroading.
