

Who's on your list? Find Great Train Gifts Inside

Dear friends,

After a final check of the hook-up wires and the gleaming tracks, you gently turn the throttle and your holiday celebration begins as the train under your tree makes its first run of the season. While other decorations have come and gone through the years, model trains remain a cherished part of many family celebrations. Perhaps no other gift can instantly transport us back across the years and remind us of all that makes this time of year so special.

This is also the time of year when many discover – and rediscover – just how much fun model trains can be. Your local hobby shop is an excellent place to begin a new tradition or revive an old one with a complete starter set. You'll find a lot has changed since you were small, but our online train set chooser at walthers.com/train-set-advisor will help you find the perfect set for your self or someone special.

Shopping for your favorite model railroader is also easy with our Holiday Gift Guide in this issue. From train-themed decorations to fun accessories, there's something for everyone starting on page 4.

Best of all, the fun of model trains will keep rolling long after the tree comes down. You'll see just a small sample of the thousands of products available from Walthers on the following pages to transform your starter set into a model railroad.

To all of you who've made us part of your holiday celebrations over the years, thank you, and warmest wishes for a merry Christmas and a happy 2018!

Phil Walther

The magic is in the air....

Just one more stop at the Amtrak station to pick up grandma and grandpa, and this Saturday will be one of the best ever! Maybe it's the snow that fell earlier, but every light and decoration seems brighter now. Maybe it's the smiles of the folks who became kids again seeing our old station wagon – complete with a tree tied to the rooftop luggage rack – chug past in this year's holiday parade. Maybe it was the free peppermint hot chocolate dad's favorite gas station serves this time of year. Whatever it is, you can feel the holiday spirit everywhere! Model trains have long-been part of that holiday magic, and Walthers has everything you need to share that fun with friends old and new.

On the Cover

It's been a holiday tradition since I was born. Dad insists to this very day he bought the set for me that year, but everyone in the family knows the real story. Seems like we start talking about setting up our Christmas trains earlier each year, and even if my brothers and I do most of the work now, well, just seeing dad's face light up.... The big day comes when we meet at the house for breakfast, then it's down to the train room where we carefully take the engine and cars out of the original packages for the annual trip upstairs. Before you know it we're all seven again, arguing about who should run the first train of the season.... But this year, as the first strains of "Peace on the Earth, good will to men" drift in from the sidewalk out front, we all just smile... and hand the throttle to dad. From a train set under your tree starting a new tradition, or products to bring the spirit of the holidays to a seasonal display layout, Walthers is ready to help you make memories with models like the WalthersProto GP35 (920-49171), Cornerstone Urban Concrete Overpass (933-4560), Urban Retaining Walls (933-4562) Two-Story House (933-3792) and much, much more.
